Description

Barbecue grill brushes

Barbecue grill brushes from LESSMANN are excellently suited to regularly cleaning grill grates to remove stubborn, burned residues.

Barbecue grill brushes, curved

These brushes are universal, versatile and suitable for different kinds of grates. The special shape gives the brush a wider working surface, making work more effective.

Barbecue grill brushes, dense

These brushes have a dense, soft filling to better adapt to grill grates.

Brush body PEFC-certified

These brushes are fabricated with a PEFC-certified beechwood body, meaning they contribute to supporting sustainable, regional forest management.
